

HUI HO'IWAI SUMMIT

Ho'i to signify return, and the ho'iwai is the part of the lo'i system where the diverted water returns to the river where it belongs.

Day 1 - Reentry strategy and planning - Ala Moana Hotel

E Ho'olako ia a'e nei me ka Hanohano...E na Hawai'i pio'ole me ka mana'o

Enrich with pride our work...Cherish Hawaii of our people's values

Mohala i ka wai ka maka o ka pua

Unfolded by the water are the faces of the flowers, flowers thrive where there is water as thriving people are found where living conditions are good

- 11:30am Registration opens
- 12:00pm Lunch
- 12:30pm Protocols at Ala Moana Hotel
- 1pm Decarceration - Invest in communities
 - Vision for the future
 - Impact on Native Hawaiians, racial disparities in the whole criminal justice system
 - Educate ourselves to then educate decision-makers about the importance of providing reentry support services through diversion (pretrial and post-incarceration stage)
 - Systems thinking approach to decarceration
 - Second chances and Redemption
- 2:00pm Successful Reentry Takes a Village!
 - Community Navigator - making things holistic-
 - Reentry Support - what is needed
- 3:00pm Collective Impact: Reentry to Advocacy
 - Collective impact, shared strategy, being solution-focused and highlighting programs/services that work with research and data
 - Reentry to advocacy
- 4:00 pm Networking
- 5:00 pm Advocacy Training
- 6:00 pm Our Stories are Sacred: Reimagining Systems of Care - Dinner
 - Keynote Speaker, Lewis Conway, ACLU Communities and Coalition Storyteller
 - What we need for a paradigm shift everywhere for a reimagined system

Day 2 - Advocacy Day - Cafe Julia and Capitol

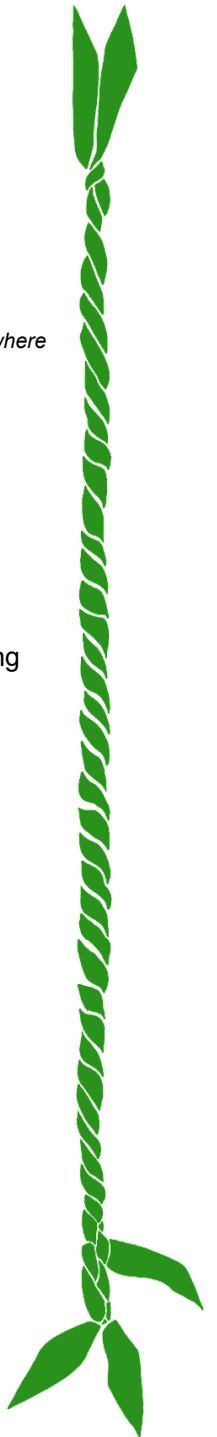

E lawe i ke a'o a mālama, a e 'oi mau ka na'auao

He/she/they who takes teachings and applies them increases their knowledge

Hulihia

Refers to massive upheavals that change the landscape, overturn the normal, reverse the flow and sweep away the prevailing or assumed

- 9:00am – Press Conference
 - Decarceration
 - Invest in communities
 - Success stories of justice-involved people and their 'ohana

- Create systems for people to be held accountable for past decisions and harms yet allowing opportunities to do good for one's self, 'ohana and larger community.
- Successful stories + reentry programs and healing services in Hawai'i
- 10:45am - Protocols at Cafe Julia
- 11am - Health Equity is Justice
 - This is a public health issue - speak to decarceration
 - Health status of justice-involved people. The consequences of constant reincarceration
 - Cross-silo participation from health systems is necessary and we should rely more on health systems to support justice-involved individuals
 - Resource/social capital mapping, trauma-informed Recovery-oriented systems of care - bringing everyone to the table (law enforcement, judiciary, corrections, ADAD, AMHD, DOH, DOE, Medical centers, treatment facilities, community...etc
 - Unmet health and social needs drive incarceration and "recidivism" rates.
 - Medicaid can pay for services and support those who are entering and leaving the justice system and describe the barriers
 - Federal changes are coming and policymakers are looking toward higher integration of health money to support justice-involved people.
 - Forecasting Medicaid 1115 waivers and statutory changes and helping inform advocates on the opportunities to get Medicaid/DHS/DOH involved..
- 12pm Storytelling, Lunch - (open mic)
- 1pm Healing and Recovery
 - Native Hawaiian culture-based long term healing, community navigator & support
 - Re-imagining reintegration - culture-based interventions, intersectionality substance issues, and incarceration/recidivism - Long term healing, recovery ready communities
- 2pm Hubs for Collaboration and Action
 - Beyond Guilt - Innocence Project – Redemption Campaign
 - Pua Foundation
 - Collaborate
 - Hub for actions
 - Talk story
 - Commitments for follow up actions - Ope Eds, storytelling, attend townhalls
- 3pm Afternoon Debrief and Closing
 - Reentry month in April!

Hui Ho'iwai is a working group of advocacy and reentry organizations striving to empower our communities and fighting to end the dehumanization of incarcerated people.

-Men of PA'A, 'EkoLu Mea Nui, Papa Ola Lōkahi, Going Home Hawai'i Consortium, ACLU of Hawai'i

